

LYON Ski School - Cadet Training Program

The Lyon Ski School Cadet Program is a volunteer internship where those selected are developed toward acquiring the skills necessary to work as a professional ski or snowboard instructor. To qualify for the Lyon Ski School Cadet Program, you must be friendly, mature, a good communicator, interested in self-improvement, helpful, and an advanced intermediate through expert level skier and/or snowboarder. You must be at least 14 years of age.

The Lyon Ski School Cadet Program requires enrollment in training classes in November and December. These clinics are an important part of cadet development. They help you work toward acquiring the skills and understanding required to earn an instructor position at Lyon Ski School and your first level of certification with P.S.I.A. (Professional Snowsport Instructors of America)

What you get if chosen for the program?

- Discounts on personal equipment as a member of P.S.I.A.
- Training towards certification
- Choose Friday night, Saturday, and/or Sunday multi-week classes
- Ongoing, season-long continuing education clinics
- The opportunity to teach independently or be promoted to instructor this season!

TRAINING CLASSES

Classroom sessions begin in October & November and on snow training sessions in December. Classes are taught by our finest PSIA certified staff and include: learning theory, children's growth and development, teaching techniques, class handling, ski/snowboard mechanics, personal skill development, and more. These clinics are important to us as the quality of instruction and the care our instructors give to each student has built our reputation as the premier children's ski school in the Northwest.

2016-17 Lyon Ski School Clinic Series:

- Orientation Meeting: October 27th
- 1 indoor session on November 17th
- 6 on-snow classes: December 1, 2, 8, 9, 15, & 16.
- Possible make-up on-snow dates December 22 and 23.
- Attend minimum of 4 on-snow

Lift tickets will be available for the on-snow training days (price TBD). Please complete your application online and bring 2 forms of ID to the program to the indoor session, November 17th.
